Saturday Night – Dinner & Entertainment

Enjoy a 2 course meal with friends and fellow Lions. Time for fellowship after a day of business. The theme is Nautical/Martime – Blue and white. Dress as you wish – some will dress in the theme, others won't. Minimum dress is dressy casual.

The main entertainment will be by The Lost Quay

A 11 voice male choir dedicated to singing shanties and other songs of the sea. Based in Fremantle.

You can join in the fun and singing and they hope to have some of you up on the floor.

Sunday (After a sleep in)

A beautiful and respectful Remembrance Ceremony will begin the day.

Guest Speakers:

Deborah Schofield - Diabetes WA - General Manager of Health Services

Diabetes WA hope to work in with Lions Clubs in some way to provide a coordinated approach to tackling diabetes in the future.

PCC Lion Philip Johnson - MD Council Chairman 2015-16 Lions year.

Be inspired by Philip's presentation on LCI Forward and 2nd Century of Lions

Have you read to the end?

PDG Tim Irvine – MD Lions Advisory Board

PDG Tim is one of our own great motivational speakers. Tim will start off our second business session on Saturday – don't miss his presentation!

Please Register – we would love to see you in Freo
